Fifth Sunday of Easter

Acts 9:26-31; Psalm 22:26-27, 28, 30-32; 1John 3:18-24; John 15:1-8

Our first reading sees Saul sometime after his conversion. He has been forced to flee Damascus and has arrived in Jerusalem where the disciples and believers still feared him because of his reputation as a persecutor of the early Church. St Barnabas speaks on his behalf and they accept him and allow him to join the group. However, his time with them is short lived because he has to flee from another group who wanted to kill him because of his positive preaching about the Risen Christ. Saul then leaves the area and the faith continues to flourish under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

In the second reading, St. John reduces the commandments to two basic instructions: belief in Christ and love of neighbour. This is nothing new for Jesus who had said this himself, but John is reminding us to keep these two commandments knowing that if we do then God will live in each of us. John also reminds us that the Father's love is real and that even if we stray we can always return to him and seek forgiveness.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells us that he is the true vine and we are the branches. Like a good gardener, the Father prunes the vine to make it yield more by cutting away the weak or diseased parts and disposing of them in fire. The good parts, the fruitful parts are nurtured with care so that they yield much fruit. Those of us who believe in Jesus Christ will be looked after but those who ignore him will wither and be gathered up for burning as rubbish. Only if we believe in him can we achieve eternal happiness and bear much fruit and thereby give glory to God. The fruit of the vine can mean that we nurture our own faith and also that we do all we can to nurture the faith in others, in other words that we partake in the mission of the Church to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ in whatever way we can.

About Mass at All Saints!

"The All Saints Catholic Community takes great pride that our congregation comes from all over the world. This brings to us a multitude of views and also introduces us to liturgical practices from different traditions with distinct customs.

One such custom may raise the question: "Should I stand, kneel or even sit during the Eucharistic prayer (the consecration of bread and wine) during the service at All Saints?"

The answer is: "Do whatever you are most comfortable with, determined by what you have done in the tradition or parish in which you grew up."

We hope this helps you to participate in our celebration the way you are used to.
