May 30, 2010 The Most Holy Trinity

Proverbs 8:22-31 • Psalm 8:4-9 • Romans 5:1-5 • John 16:12-15

Oh, Great Spirit, whose voice I hear in the winds
Whose breath gives life to the world, hear me

I come to you as one of your many children
I am small and weak
I need your strength and wisdom

Make my eyes ever behold the red and purple sunset.
Make my hands respect the things you have made
And my ears sharp to your voice.

Make me wise so that I may know the things you have taught your children.
The lessons you have written in every leaf and rock

Make me strong
Not to be superior to my brothers and sisters, but to fight my greatest enemy....myself

Religion is unique. Nothing can take its place. This is true first of all in relation to God, because He is man's Creator ... and a reasonable service of love, gratitude, and obedience is His due from those whom He has brought into existence. It is true also in relation to man, because man, as a creature, was made for a purpose. Religion exists to tell us about this purpose and how we are to go about achieving it. It is therefore the mutual arrangement between Creator and reasonable creature – an indispensable arrangement.

Religion Means God and Me
