January 30, 2011 Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Zephaniah 2:3, 3:12-13 • Psalm 146:6-10 • 1 Corinthians 1:26-31 • Matthew 5:1-12

*“With regard to any project, we must put ourselves in God’s hands
as if our success depended on Him, but with regard to choosing the means and doing the work,
we must labor
as if everything depended on us.”*

- Ignatius of Loyola

The challenge is to find the right balance between discipline and freedom, such that one's friendship with God can deepen. Prayer is certainly an important element in this friendship but not the only one. Moreover, some people find that some of their most deeply meaningful moments come not in formal prayer but in everyday action. Perhaps the distinctions we make between prayer and action are too sharp.

OUR COMMUNITY: The All Saints Catholic Community is based on the principle that we, the Community, willingly take on all the responsibilities of running our own Community and supporting our Celebrants. The All Saints Coordinators, whose contact telephone numbers are shown overleaf, guide groups of volunteers in meeting our needs and those of our Celebrants. Please volunteer to help that group to which you feel you can most contribute. Contact the All Saints Coordinator responsible for the group.
