February 06, 2011 Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Isaiah 58:7-10 • Psalm 112:4-9 • 1 Corinthians 2:1-5 • Matthew 5:13-16

Holy Father's prayer intentions for February 2011 • *General Intention: That the family may be respected by all in its identity and that its irreplaceable contribution to all of society be recognized.

• Missionary Intention: That in the mission territories where the struggle against disease is most urgent, Christian communities may witness to the presence of Christ to those who suffer.

It was early spring, the tree buds were appearing and the birds enthusiastically singing as if to make up for the lost time of the cold, winter months. Children, leaving their confined apartments, were playing outdoors and enjoying the day. My wife and I were standing on a bridge watching a train approach the metro station. Suddenly, a ball, appearing from behind the bushes, swiftly began to roll down the slope toward the rails. We could not shake away a dark premonition that the ball's little owner would soon appear dashing after the ball. The scene was frightening; then unexpectedly something happened. The approaching train abruptly came to a halt. The driver got out, picked up the ball and threw it over the slope thus preventing its owner the temptation of retrieving the ball from the dangerous rails. As he returned to his engine, he looked up to see the surprised look on our faces. We lifted our folded hands as a sign of appreciation. Soon the train disappeared from our view. Without him ever knowing, this action may have saved a child's life. Looking up to the sky, we were flabbergasted to see clouds forming into the shape of a man extending his arms in a protective pose. I'm sure it was more than just our imagination.
