February 20, 2011 Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Leviticus 19:1-2,17-18 • Psalm 103:1-4,8,10,12-13 • 1 Corinthians 3:16-23 • Matthew 5:38-48

Living in God's presence

A Siberian shaman asked God to show him someone that He loved. The Lord advised the man to look for a certain farmer. When he found the farmer, the shaman asked him: "What do you do to make the Lord love you so much?"

The farmer replied: "I say His name in the morning. I work all day and say His name before going to sleep. That's all."

The shaman thought: "I think I found the wrong man."

Just then the Lord appeared and said to the shaman: "Fill a bowl with milk, and go to town and then return without spilling a single drop."

The shaman did what the Lord had asked from him. On his return, the Lord wanted to know how many times the shaman had thought of Him.

The shaman answered: "How could I? I was worried not to spill the milk!"

And the Lord said: "A simple bowl made you forget me, and the farmer, with all his tasks, thinks of me twice a day."

OUR COMMUNITY: The All Saints Catholic Community is based on the principle that we, the Community, willingly take on all the responsibilities of running our own Community and supporting our Celebrants. The All Saints Coordinators, whose contact telephone numbers are shown overleaf, guide groups of volunteers in meeting our needs and those of our Celebrants. Please volunteer to help that group to which you feel you can most contribute. Contact the All Saints Coordinator responsible for the group.
