March 13, 2011 First Sunday of Lent

Genesis 2:7-9, 3:1-7 • Psalm 51:3-6, 12-14, 17 • Romans 5:12-19 • Matthew 4:1-11

Jesus encourages us to stand with confidence – but speaking words of comfort and encouragement is neither a privilege nor a task of God alone. We are invited to speak supportive words to one another. And I am certain that you will experience that words of encouragement are stronger than those of criticism. Words that make others feel bad should be erased from our vocabulary.

There are so many chances to say encouraging words – in family life, in our work place, to our friends – to ourselves. To use supportive words that inspire trust in oneself and in others should be a reflexive action and an ongoing attitude. Encouraging words should also show appreciation, endorsement and respect for others. Why not say more often to others: “Well done”, “I like that”, “I enjoyed that” and, of course, “I appreciate what you do”, “I like you” or even “I love you”?

There is a well-known saying in German: "Das Wort, das du brauchst, kannst du dir nicht selber sagen." – „The words you need to hear cannot be said to you by yourself”. These words must be said to you by someone else – by God, if we are believers, and by others. Let us become the messengers of these good, encouraging and life-giving words: “The words you need to hear cannot be said to you by yourself, the word we need to hear cannot be said to us by ourselves”.

OUR COMMUNITY: The All Saints Catholic Community is based on the principle that we, the Community, willingly take on all the responsibilities of running our own Community and supporting our Celebrants. The All Saints Coordinators, whose contact telephone numbers are shown overleaf, guide groups of volunteers in meeting our needs and those of our Celebrants. Please volunteer to help that group to which you feel you can most contribute. Contact the All Saints Coordinator responsible for the group.
