Our Mission Statement: The All Saints Catholic Community is a fully integrated, multicultural community with English as its unifying language. It is an open, warm, welcoming, inclusive community that prays together and celebrates its unity in diversity.

May 29, 2011 Sixth Sunday of Easter

Acts 8:5-8, 14-17 • Psalm 66:1-7, 16, 20 • 1 Peter 3:15-18 • John 14:15-21

Jesus says, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one can come to the Father except through me" (John 14:6) and "I am the gate. Whoever enters through me, will be saved" (John 10:9). So Jesus, not the religious leaders, is the one who offers the way to the Father.

I would like to invite you to reflect upon some questions the text poses to us as individuals and as a community. What responsibility do I, do we, have for the lives of others? How do I see my role: am I more like an open door or do I send others away? Am I a door for others and towards life, a door to God or am I like a thief, only taking and never giving? What does my longing for life, for life here in this world and for life beyond this world, have to do with Jesus and with my faith?

A part of the answer is that, which we do together at this Eucharist: sharing bread and wine, Christ's body and blood, at this meal for the goal of becoming one body.

OUR COMMUNITY: The All Saints Catholic Community is based on the principle that we, the Community, willingly take on all the responsibilities of running our own Community and supporting our Celebrants. The All Saints Coordinators, whose contact telephone numbers are shown overleaf, guide groups of volunteers in meeting our needs and those of our Celebrants. Please volunteer to help that group to which you feel you can most contribute. Contact the All Saints Coordinator responsible for the group.
