Major Themes in Evangelii Gaudium (Joy of the Gospel), Pope Francis' First Apostolic Exhortation (Nov 24th 2013)

No 3. Missionary Disciple

The term “missionary disciple” is used throughout the document. The two terms are used to hold in tension the need both for a relationship with our Lord and the need to go to the outskirts to preach the Gospel. One thing is very clear. Every Baptized member of the Christian faith is called to evangelize and is called to be a missionary disciple.

“In virtue of their baptism, all the members of the People of God have become missionary disciples (cf. Mt 28:19). All the baptized, whatever their position in the Church or their level of instruction in the faith, are agents of evangelization.” (#120)

“What I would like to propose is something much more in the line of an evangelical discernment. It is the approach of a missionary disciple, an approach «nourished by the light and strength of the Holy Spirit»” (#50). [Pope Francis quotes Pope John Paul II, Pastores dabo vobis, 1992]

“The Church is herself a missionary disciple” (#40).

“A Church which «goes forth», which is «on the move», is a Church whose doors are open... At times we have to be like the father of the prodigal son, who always keeps his door open so that when the son returns, he can readily pass through it. (#46)

Holy Father's Prayer Intentions for March 2014

General: That respect for nature may grow with the awareness that all creation is God's work entrusted to human responsibility.

Missionary: That bishops, priests, and deacons may be tireless messengers of the Gospel to the ends of the earth.
