Today we celebrate Pentecost Sunday

Power from above that guides and enlightens believers and disciples of Christ to break barriers that separate, alienate and isolate the human family from the law of God.

Pentecost is a feast of rediscovery and renewal: that we are one family of the children of God called to live together in love and support of one another.

It is an invitation to promote humanity and the common human family.

Today, there are so many challenges to this call. The world is wounded by the evil of hatred and violence. Humanity and the human family have all lost meaning and hope.

As believers and disciples of the Risen Lord, we are called to restore this meaning and hope by and through love for one another.

Pentecost commits us to be truly engaged in the project of humanity for a better world whose children of God live in peace, love and respect for one another. Love is the new and only language that should be identified by those who receive the Spirit of God that joins us into the "sonship" of God.

Let us pray that we who participate in the feast of Pentecost may be true witnesses of the love that God has lavished on us.
