Pleasure is God's gift, not the forbidden fruit.

Rejoice! St. Paul commends this in his letter to the Christian community in Philippi (4.4-7): "Brothers and sisters: rejoice in the Lord always. I shall say it again, rejoice." The word for rejoice in Latin is gaudete, so quite naturally this Sunday is called Gaudete Sunday. Why all this happiness and joy? Are we finally getting a break from somber and dull Advent?

Yes. But there is more to it than that. Remember that Advent is like a retreat, like a meditation time that the worldwide Church is making. In this third week we will consider our lives in the context of the great beauty God has put in us and around us.

Can we let God's beauty into our lives? God's gladness sings out joyfully at every instant, and his song is the earth, the galaxies, and the people. A line in Zephaniah (3.14-18) puts this in striking terms. The prophet actually says that the Lord "will sing joyfully because of you, as one sings at festivals, he will dance with shouts of joy for you."

Have you ever in your life thought that God's might break into song because of you? Have you ever in your life thought that God's might dance with shouts of joy for you? Because of you! Have you ever allowed your idea of God expand that far?

There is this wonderful idea that creation could to be made out of melody: a melody God sings. How about using this for an insight: God's gladness sings out joyfully at every instant, and his song is the earth, the galaxies, the people, the plants and soaring hawks and encircling planets, droplets of dew and heavy black holes, youthful beauties, ancient wisdoms, and everything else that exists! In this image, we certainly are God's song.

Luke 3.10-18 has people in long rows, gathering to be baptized, expecting the Savior who is to come. Each group of them, the crowd, the tax collectors, the soldiers .. ask John the Baptist the question: "Teacher, what should we do?" "Let your life sing," he seems to answer. Let your life be what it is: God's joyous, interleaved and always consonant melody. Then our life sounds outwards in deepest joy. God has given us permission to enjoy life and its pleasures. This truth too needs to be a central part of our religious teaching. Pleasure is God's gift, not the forbidden fruit.

A short question at the end of this homily: Could this be your Advent? Always be aware that our life is like a melody sung by God?

Three Kings Day Celebration

We will have a special Three Kings Day hospitality after Mass on Sunday, January 6th.

Did you know? - January the 6th is a special day in Mexico. Known as El Dia de Reyes (Three Kings Day), this holiday represents the height of the Christmas season. The date marks the culmination of the twelve days of Christmas and commemorates the three wise men who traveled from afar, bearing gifts for the infant baby Jesus. The children of Mexico in particular look forward to this holiday as traditionally, gifts are exchanged on this date, not on Christmas day.

Will you be the lucky one to find the special item in the very special cake? If so, you get to be the King or Queen of the day!
