Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love,
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
And where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved, as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive,
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Survey: For a Synodal Church

As part of the diocesan-level activities in preparation for the Synod on Synodality, the Archdiocese invites all the faithful to participate in a preliminary survey to submit responses to a catalog of relevant questions about your experience of synodality in the Church today. Participation is strictly voluntary! The ESM has created a simple online questionnaire (multiple choice) which can be completed in a matter of minutes. Answers are submitted anonymously. The deadline for completing the survey is MARCH 13th! Submissions after this date will not be collated. To access the questionnaire, visit <https://freeonlinesurveys.com/s/Trn3EXIH#0> or our website: all-saints.info

Did you know that All Saints is run entirely by volunteers?

We pride ourselves that we are a self-supporting parish, but new helping hands are always appreciated! Please consider joining one of the volunteer groups that make the community work, e.g.:

- Are you 16 years or older and think being a Lector is your cup of tea? Then contact Johannes Ploog.
- Altar Servers are always welcomed – just turn to Konrad Giersdorf!
- The choir is always looking for more members too – just say hello to Johannes Wrembek!
- Enjoying this bulletin? Help our community to write short pieces of information and review with others the draft. Want to help? Don't hesitate to contact Seán Alfken.
